

NO MEDIA MONOPOLY! The citizens of the United States need diversity in media and programming...not a propoganda machine. The existing ownership rules need to be retained. Any change at this juncture in our country's history is highly suspicious and will force Americans away from mainstream media to alternative sources.